Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe!This Sunday, commonly referred to as the Feast of Christ the King signifies the last week of Ordinary Time.Next Sunday we will start a brand-new liturgical year with the First Sunday of Advent. Today's feast asks a very important question of each of us: Are we saying yes to Jesus and his command of love? It is through this filter we should be running all our choices and priorities during this upcoming season. In the first reading from the prophet Ezekiel, we have the assurance that God will take care of his people like a shepherd tending his flock. "Just as a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep." Then in the second reading from 1 Corinthians, Paul touts the resurrection of Jesus as the means not only to our salvation, but also as the way that death is conquered once and for all. "Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of all who have fallen asleep." And finally, Matthew's gospel is a surprising and counter-cultural message.Here we hear a message that tells us that the longing of our hearts is not satisfied with purchases, parties or self-indulgence. We all want to hear Jesus' warm welcome at the end of time. "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

Do you think that Christianity is unique? I would say it is, especially when talking about Catholicism.Christianity and Catholicism in particular have a treasure of teachings and devotions, prayers, history, and all sorts of things. And one thing that really stands out is that our faith, our Church is founded on a person. Yes, a lot of religions are founded by a person, but that's not what I'm saying.Our faith is founded on a person who we believe is the living God revealing himself to the world in a profound way.It is Jesus, through the power of the Holy Spirit, who is the foundation of the Church, the soul of the Church, the center of the Church, the heart and mind of the Church, the very life of the Church. Think about this. To be a Christian is not just about agreeing to some moral principles or admiring a few wise sayings from a guy who lived 2000 years ago. And it shouldn't be about hedging your bet and believing just in case it's true. It's really about committing oneself to a person who in faith we call friend, brother, savior, God and yes, even King! It is our relationship with Jesus which is at the heart of what it means to be a Christian, to be a disciple, to be faithful. This means opening your heart and mind in such a way so Jesus can find a dwelling there, so he can be every good thing for you.

We may latch on to Jesus as our friend and Savior because of what we know of him and how we know him intimately. Buit he is also our King. This means we believe that a life with God requires an understanding of our place and that carrying out the wishes, desires and commands of our King is the only way for God's kingdom to become more visible. It is the only way for the world to become more and more the beautiful place God created it to be. So yes, Christianity is unique. And the truth is that each of us is unique too, with a singular role to play. So, accept your role and pledge allegiance to Jesus, our King and then live the most wonderful life possible. You'll be better for it and our world will too. Long live the King!

Thanksgiving Day is this Thursday, November 26th. We will celebrate one parish Mass that day at 9:30am in our church. All are encouraged to come and bring some bread and wine from your Thanksgiving table that will be blessed to show our Eucharistic connection in prayer with your festive Thanksgiving dinner at home.

Please remember to take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. It contains many items of interest and invitation with something for everyone. Of special note is the next Holy Hour on Monday evening, November 30th, an order form for Christmas Plants, the Come and See Centerfold page, the Communal Prayer Before Mass (found on the inside back cover), an invitation to join FORMED (your Catholic Faith on demand) and much more. To keep informed, keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week.

Have a great week and a wonderful Thanksgiving Day on Thursday with your family and friends.Just remember: Thanksgiving is good, but Thanksliving is better. God bless always.

-Father Chuck

WEEKLY MASS READINGS
NOVEMBER 22, 2026 - THE SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

FIRST READING
EZEKIEL 34:11-12, 15-17

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly. As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

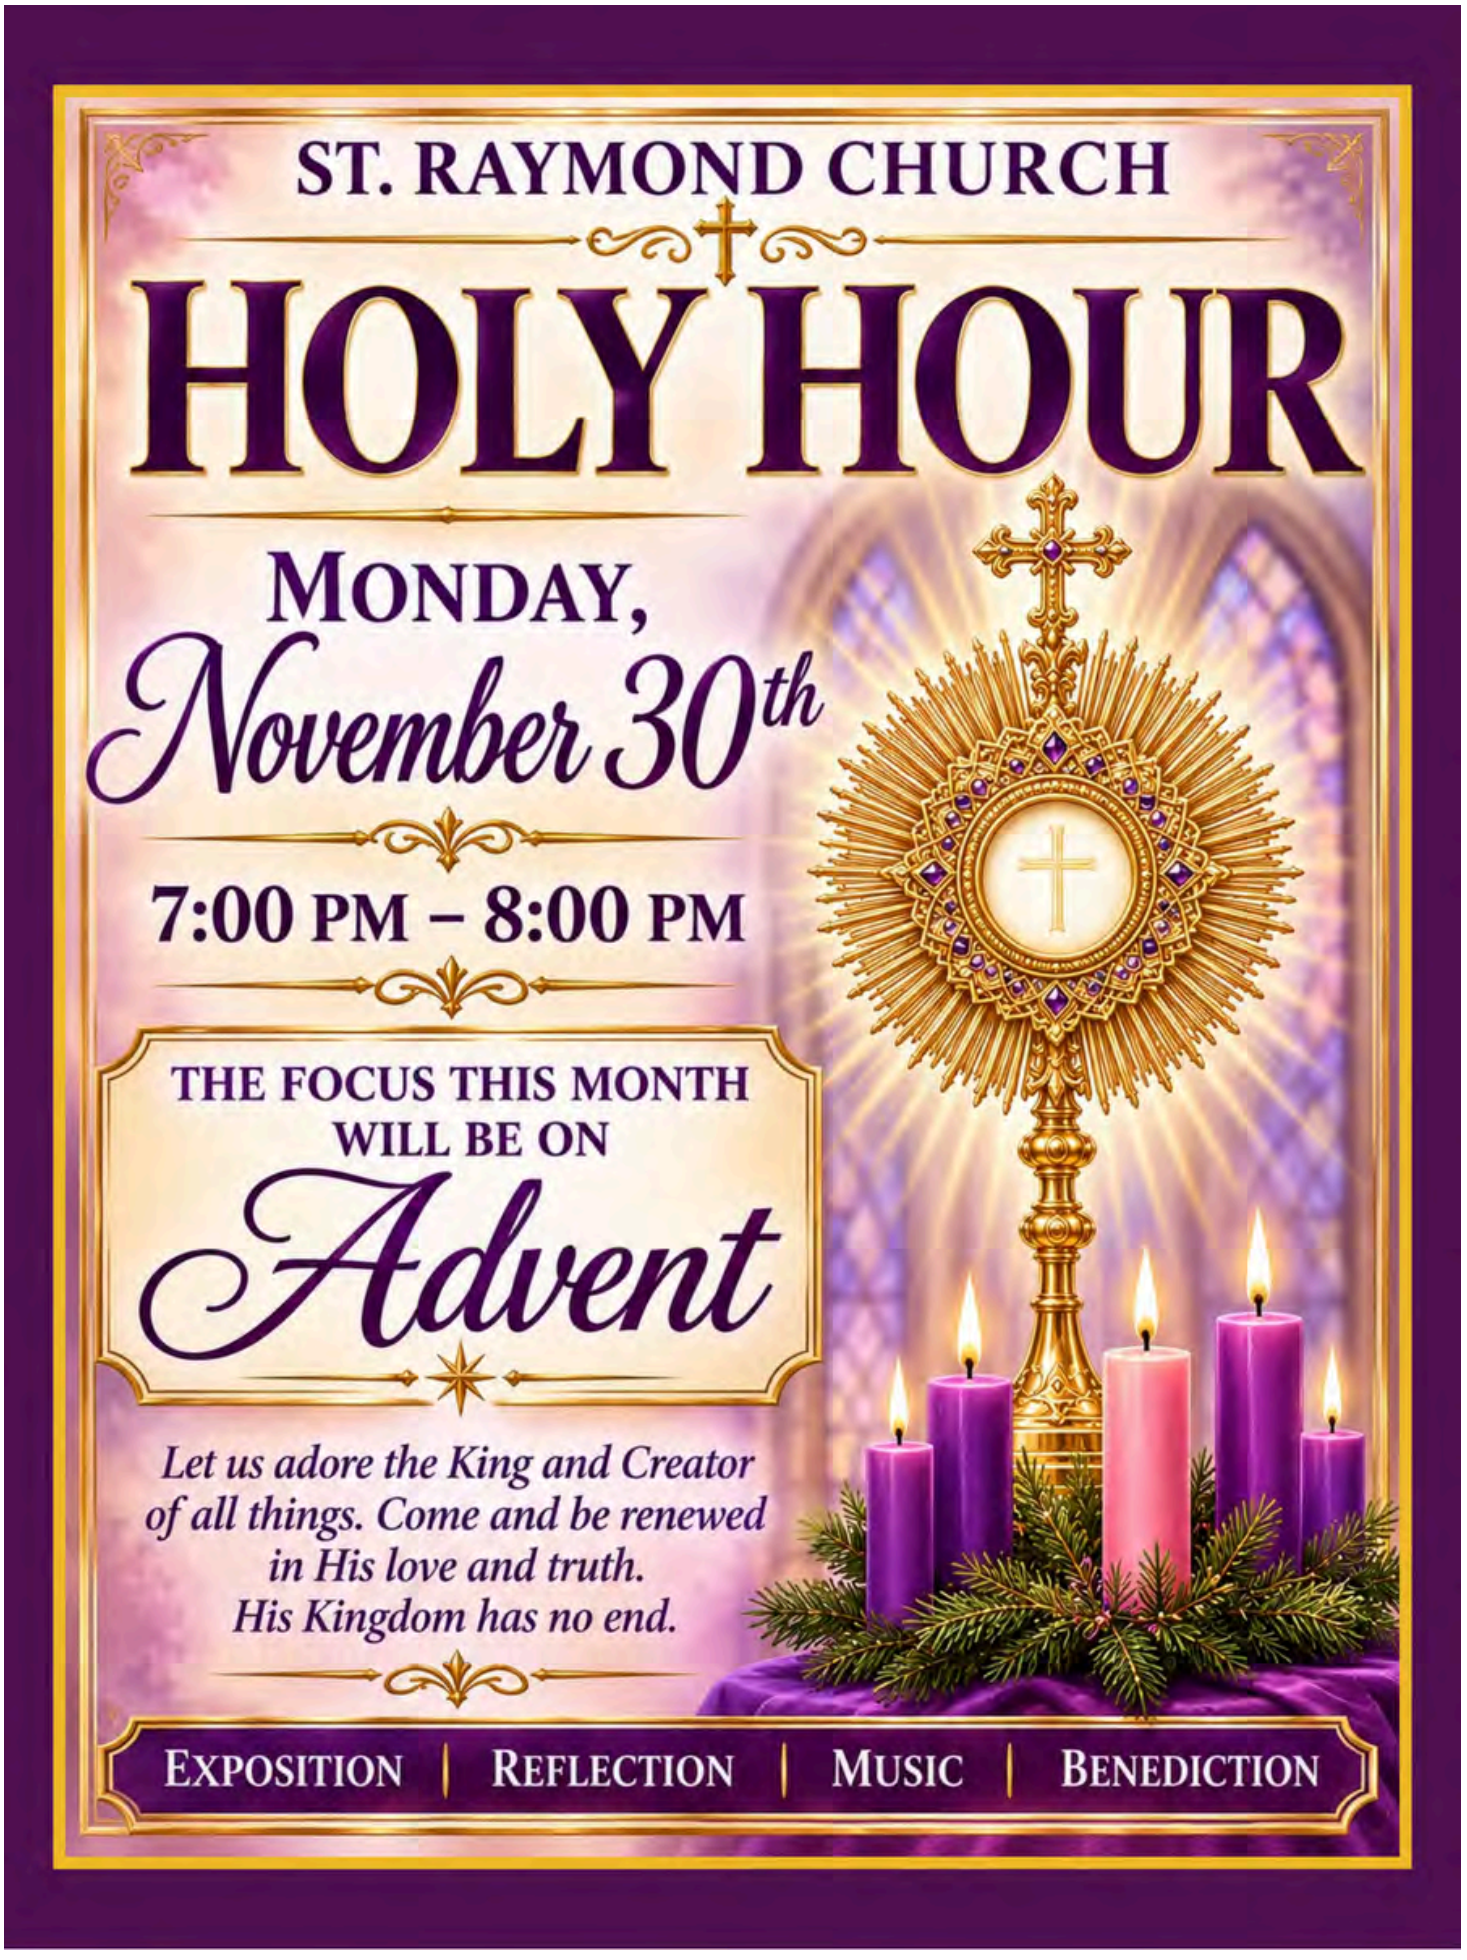

SECOND READING
1 CORINTHIANS 15:20-26, 28

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

GOSPEL
MATTHEW 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.' Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe GUIDE FOR PERSONAL PRAYER

Come & See

Until you do, you will never know

SUMMARY OF THE READINGS FOR THE WEEK

In the Gospel for the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Matthew 25:31–46), Jesus reveals that our love for Him is measured by the compassion we show to those who are hungry, suffering, lonely, or in need. He reminds us, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, honors Christ as our eternal King and Good Shepherd, whose reign is revealed through mercy, justice, and love.

On Monday of this week there are three Optional Memorials: Clement I, pope and martyr, guided the early Church toward unity, peace, and faithfulness to Christ. "Follow the Saints, because those who follow them will become Saints." Saint Columban, an Irish abbot and missionary. "If you want to know the Creator, understand created things." Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro, a Mexican Jesuit priest and martyr.. "Viva Cristo Rey!" ("Long live Christ the King!").

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Andrew Dũng-Lạc, a Vietmanese Priest, and his Companions, all of them martyrs. "Whoever dies for the faith goes up to heaven; on the contrary, we who continually hide ourselves spend money to escape persecutors! It would be much better to let ourselves be arrested and die." Wednesday is the Optional Memorial of Saint Catherine of Alexandria, a virgin and martyr. "I am the bride of Christ."

The First Readings for Monday through Wednesday and Friday through Saturday come from the Book of Revelation (14:1–3, 4b–5; 14:14–19; 15:1–4; 20:1–4, 11–21:2; 22:1–7). Through Saint John's visions, we encounter the Lamb's faithful followers, God's final judgment, the triumph of heavenly worship, and the promise of a new heaven and earth. These passages assure us that evil will not prevail and that those who remain faithful will share in Christ's eternal Kingdom.

On Thanksgiving Day, the First Reading from Sirach 50:22–24 invites us to bless the Lord for His goodness and enduring mercy while, in the Second Reading from 1 Corinthians 1:3-9, Saint Paul reminds us to give thanks for God's abundant grace and faithfulness, assuring us that He will strengthen and sustain us as we await the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Throughout this week's Gospels, Jesus calls us to generous self-giving, courageous perseverance, gratitude, hope in God's promises, and watchfulness for His coming.

In Monday's Gospel (Luke 21:1–4), Jesus praises a poor widow who offers two small coins, recognizing the depth of her sacrifice. "This poor widow put in more than all the rest." On Tuesday (Luke 21:5–11), Jesus foretells the destruction of the Temple and warns against fear and deception amid troubling events. "Do not be terrified."

In Wednesday's Gospel (Luke 21:12–19), Jesus prepares His followers for persecution, promising them wisdom and strength to bear witness. "By your perseverance you will secure your lives." On Thanksgiving Day (Luke 17:11–19), Jesus heals ten lepers, but only one returns to thank Him, reminding us that true faith is expressed through gratitude for God's blessings. Jesus praises the grateful man, declaring, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

In Friday's Gospel (Luke 21:29–33), Jesus uses the budding fig tree to teach that God's Kingdom is drawing near. He promises, "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away." On Saturday (Luke 21:34–36), Jesus warns against allowing worldly anxieties to dull our hearts and calls us to remain spiritually prepared. "Be vigilant at all times and pray."

For the First Sunday of Advent (Mark 13:33–37), Jesus invites us to begin a new season of hopeful expectation with His command, "Be watchful! Be alert!"

MONTH 5 – DEVELOPING BABY

"Mommy felt me kick today!"

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it - - the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

For anyone in need of assistance with an unplanned pregnancy, please call the following for free, confidential, caring help. You are not alone. We are here to help you in this time of need.

Communal Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ.
He is as present to us today in his Word
and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.
Holy Spirit please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day,
so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.
Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do.
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord,
Amen.
