Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time! The focus of today's readings is to help us recognize the presence and action of God in our lives. In the first reading from Isaiah, the prophet tells the people how God spoke to him and how he is made glorious because of God's presence in his life. His role in preparing Israel comes straight to him in God's very own words. "I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." Then in the Responsorial Psalm for this Sunday we sing the response that all followers of Jesus should have. "Here am I lord; I come to do your will." And finally in John's gospel, we see John the Baptist giving strong testimony to Jesus as the promised one to be made known to all Israel. His coming was the one John the Baptist was sent to prepare the people for. The surety of Jesus as the One for John was that when he baptized him, the Spirit descended upon him as had been foretold to John by God. "On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain; he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit. Now I have seen and testify that he is the Son of God."

Most of us like to win, don't we? In the workplace, on the field, in the classroom, in the dating scene, in our social circles, in arguments.... pretty much everywhere. We enjoy finishing on top. We even presume winning at things that can't be measured. Our opinions are more intelligent, our tastes are better, as is our sense of humor. Our personality is better, as is our way of looking at things. And we probably believe that we have more common sense than most other people. Yes, we like winning and think we are a winner when it comes to all sorts of things. And with this desire to be on top, comes a certain sense of entitlement. We should get some perks and breaks that others don't get. Special attention, freebees, no parking tickets, more attractive mates, higher paying jobs, better medical care; in other words better stuff than what the average person gets.

"A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me..." so says John the Baptist. Pretty humble words, yes? After all he was getting a lot of attention. People were interested in him, giving him prestige and acclaim. But John would have nothing of it.

What about us? Would we have? More importantly, do we? John wasn't blinded by fame or a need for attention. He knew the proper relationship between himself and God. He knew the difference between his role in life and the role of the One the people had longed for ages. Any importance John had, paled in importance to that of Jesus. John was perfectly fine with who Jesus was.

Every straying from the path, every moral failure, every sin, is essentially a confusing of the relationship between us and God, a kind of placing ourselves on top with God somewhere below. We cling to the things of this world too tightly and push to the back the One who should be getting our attention, our obedience, our love, our complete selves. Now, it's not easy maintaining a proper relationship with God. If it were, there would be no sin. Yet there is no truly faithful way of living without self-emptying, without surrendering. You can't have a path to God without acts of kindness, generosity, compassion and love. And there is no salvation without Jesus laying down his life. John knew it. Jesus showed it and it is up to us to continue imitating him by putting others before ourselves. That's how we give God his rightful place in our lives.

Please remember to take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. It contains many items of interest and invitation with something for everyone. Of special note is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry, info from Religious Education (Faith Formation), a reservation form for the upcoming Valentine's Day Dance on Saturday, February 7th for all our parish girls, first grade through eighth, the Come and See Centerfold, the Communal Prayer Before Mass (found on the inside back cover), an invitation to join FORMED (your Catholic Faith on demand) and much more. To keep informed, keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week for quick and easy reference.

Have a great week. Smile, share, recognize God's presence in your daily life. And remember: Today is a gift from God, remember to thank him. God bless always. -Father Chuck

WEEKLY MASS PRAYERS

JANUARY 18, 2026—SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,

we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us;

You take away the sin of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One;
you alone are the Lord.

You alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father.

Amen

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

[Pray while striking the breast 3 times.]
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our Salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in Glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of Sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

READINGS FOR TODAY'S MASS

JANUARY 18, 2026—SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING

Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

The LORD said to me: You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory. Now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him; and I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD, and my God is now my strength! It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 40:2, 4, 7-8, 8-9, 10

R/ Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.
I have waited, waited for the LORD, and he stooped toward me and heard my cry. And he put a new song into my mouth, a hymn to our God.

R/ Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.
Sacrifice or offering you wished not, but ears open to obedience you gave me. Holocausts or sin-offerings you sought not; then said I, "Behold I come."

R/ Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.
"In the written scroll it is prescribed for me, to do your will, O my God, is my delight, and your law is within my heart!"

R/ Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.
I announced your justice in the vast assembly; I did not restrain my lips, as you, O LORD, know.

R/ Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

ALLELUIA

John 1:14a, 12a

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us. To those who accepted him, he gave power to become children of God.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

John 1:29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

ST. RAYMOND'S HUMAN LIFE COMMITTEE

JANUARY 22ND

"DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN"

Even with the overturning of Roe v. Wade in June, 2022, many states, including NY, continue to not recognize children in their mothers' wombs warranting protection under the law. Federal and state laws in our country fail to protect the lives of the unborn babies and many political leaders, at both levels of government, work actively to increase access to abortion. Some falsely describe the killing of the unborn through abortion as healthcare and even a basic human right. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has chosen January 22nd, to be a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and a day of penance for the violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion. We invite all to join with us: Thursday, January 22nd, at the 3 pm - 4 pm hour of weekly Adoration, as we pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and the Rosary of Our Lady for the intention for the legal protection of unborn children and an end to abortion.

March for Life, Washington, D.C. - Friday, January 23rd

Although we will not be physically attending the "March for Life", we will be joining with them spiritually through prayer that day. Please join with us as we pray for the successful witness to our nation to the sanctity and preciousness of all human life, for an end to abortion, and for the safety of those in D.C. that day.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Date: Friday, January 23rd

Time: 1 pm - 4 pm

Concluding with Benediction

"...then if My people will humble themselves and pray, and search for Me, and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear them from heaven and forgive their sins and heal their land. I will listen, wide awake, to every prayer made in this place".

- Proverbs 14:31

During the month of December, the Parish Social Ministry assisted 81 households with food, personal care and household items and provided them with other services they needed through Department of Social Services, Catholic Charities and Saint Vincent DePaul. Food assistance is available to those in need who live within our Parish boundaries, including senior citizens who depend on their Social Security benefits as their only source of income.

Pantry items still needed:

Cold Cereal, Hot Cereal, Pancake Mix, Pancake Syrup, Cooking Oil, Canned Fruit, Snacks, Peanut Butter, Grape Jelly, Mayonnaise, Mustard, Ketchup, Instant Mashed Potatoes, Coffee, Tea, Laundry Detergent and Dish Detergent.

Food donations can be brought to the Ryan House during its open hours or non-perishable food can be left in the bin on the Ryan House porch or in the Altar Server's Sacristy.

Recycled Christmas Cards - Please help us. We need your Christmas cards - the front cover only - to recycle and use for the 2026 Giving Tree tags. Every year we put over 300 tags on the tree and that is a lot of cards we need to gather. You can either drop the cards off at the Ryan House when it is open or place them in a plastic bag and put them in the bin on the porch. Every card makes a difference and thank you, as always, for all your support.

*Thank you for your continued support and generosity,
You are always in our prayers!*

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME
WEEKLY GUIDE FOR PERSONAL PRAYER

Come & See

Until you do, you will never know

SUMMARY OF
THE READINGS
FOR THE WEEK

For the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel proclaims John the Baptist's witness to Jesus at the Jordan, where he boldly recognizes him, saying, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world," and testifies that he "saw the Spirit come down... and remain upon him," revealing Jesus as the Son of God and the fulfillment of God's salvific plan.

Tuesday of this week is the Optional Memorial of Saint Fabian (Pope and Martyr and Saint Sebastian, Martyr (a lay soldier). Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Agnes (Virgin and Martyr, whose youthful total gift of self to Christ stands as a powerful example of purity and devotion). Thursday is the Optional Memorial of Saint Vincent (Deacon and Martyr). Friday is the Optional Memorial of Saint Marianne Cope, Virgin (a religious sister known for her compassionate care of those afflicted with leprosy in Hawaii). Saturday is the Memorial of Saint Francis de Sales (Bishop and Doctor of the Church, who was spiritual writer whose gentle wisdom encourages holiness in everyday life).

Together, these saints highlight the enduring call to faithful witness, courageous service, and compassionate love: martyrs like Fabian, Sebastian, Agnes, and Vincent remind us that discipleship may demand the ultimate sacrifice, while Saint Marianne Cope's life of self-giving care and Saint Francis de Sales's pastoral gentleness teach that holiness blossoms through charity and patient devotion to Christ in all circumstances.

In the United States, Thursday is a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. On this day we pray for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through act of abortion.

During this week the First Readings from 1 Samuel 15-19 and 2 Samuel 1 trace God's rejection of Saul for disobedience and the quiet rise of David, whom the Lord chooses not for appearances but because "the Lord looks at the heart" (1 Sam 16:7). The narratives highlight key themes of obedience over sacrifice, trust in God's saving power as David faces Goliath, and fidelity amid suffering as Saul's jealousy drives David into danger, revealing how God's purposes unfold even through conflict. The week concludes with David's poignant lament over Saul and Jonathan (2 Sam 1:17-27), expressing covenantal love and teaching that authentic holiness is marked by humility, courage, and faithful love shaped by God's will.

The Gospels for the week open on Monday with Jesus addressing questions about fasting by explaining the newness he brings to God's covenant to capture the life of the kingdom rather than adhering to old forms (Mark 2:18-22). On Tuesday, Jesus further asserts his authority over tradition as he defends his disciples in a dispute about Sabbath observance (Mark 2:23-28). Wednesday's Gospel (Mark 3:1-6) portrays Jesus healing a man with a withered hand on the sabbath, challenging hardened hearts and exposing opposition from the Pharisees who then begin to plot against him, underscoring his mission to free and restore despite resistance.

Continuing in Mark, Thursday's Gospel (Mark 3:7-12) shows Jesus surrounded by large crowds from many regions drawn by his healing power and authority over unclean spirits, who even recognize him as "the Son of God" though he commands silence about his identity. Friday's passage (Mark 3:13-19) depicts Jesus appointing the twelve apostles commissioning them to be with him and to share in his preaching and healing mission. Finally, Saturday's Gospel (Mark 3:20-21) shows the intensity of Jesus' ministry as crowds press in on him so much that even his family expresses concern, revealing both the overwhelming response to his presence and the misunderstandings that sometimes accompany it.

For Sunday, January 25th, the Gospel recounts the beginning of Jesus' public ministry in Galilee, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand," and calls the first disciples to follow him as he proclaims the light of God shining into the world.

*"The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.
To those who accepted him, he gave power to become children of God." –John 1:14a, 12a*

Daily Prayer This Week

As this week's Gospels unfold, I am invited to recognize Christ more deeply, remain open to his renewing grace, and allow His healing love and call to discipleship to shape how I pray, work, and love amid the demands of daily life.

Recognizing the Lamb

"Behold, the Lamb of God." (John 1:29)

As I begin the week, I am invited to look at Jesus with the eyes of faith and recognize him at work in the ordinary moments of my family and professional life, not only in prayer but in daily responsibilities. Naming Christ as the Lamb of God helps me entrust my burdens, sins, and decisions to him rather than carrying them alone.

My Prayer: Lord Jesus, open my eyes to recognize you each day and trust you with all that I carry.

Newness of Grace

*"New wine must be poured into fresh wineskins."
(Mark 2:22)*

Jesus challenges me to examine whether my habits, expectations, or routines leave room for the new life He desires to give, especially when work pressures and family patterns feel fixed. By remaining flexible and open to grace, I allow God to renew my heart rather than simply managing obligations.

My Prayer: Renew my heart, Lord, and help me welcome your grace with openness and trust.

Lord of the Sabbath

*"The Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath."
(Mark 2:28)*

This Gospel calls me to honor rest, mercy, and human dignity over rigid productivity, reminding me that my worth is not measured solely by output or efficiency. By placing Christ at the center of my schedule, I learn to balance responsibility with compassion for myself and others.

My Prayer: Teach me, Lord, to order my time around you and to live with merciful balance.

Choosing to Heal

"Stretch out your hand." (Mark 3:5)

Jesus' healing on the sabbath urges me to act with love even when it is inconvenient or misunderstood, especially in family tensions or workplace conflicts.

I am reminded that choosing compassion over fear allows God's healing power to flow through my words and actions.

Prayer: Give me courage, Lord, to choose love and healing in every situation.

Called and Sent

"He appointed twelve... that they might be with him." (Mark 3:14)

Being called first to be with Jesus before being sent reshapes how I approach my many roles, grounding my service in prayerful relationship rather than constant activity. When I remain close to Christ, my family life and work become places of mission rather than sources of exhaustion alone.

Prayer: Draw me closer to you, Lord, so that all I do may flow from being with you.

Saint Agnes of Rome was a young, noble Christian virgin martyred for her faith around age 12 or 13 during Diocletian's persecution, known for her purity and devotion to Christ, refusing marriage and choosing death over betraying her vows, leading to her being a patron saint of young girls, chastity, and rape survivors, often depicted with a lamb, and celebrated on January 21st.

Saint Francis de Sales

Francis de Sales, was a Savoyard Catholic prelate who served as Bishop of Geneva and is a saint of the Catholic Church. He became noted for his deep faith and his gentle approach to the religious divisions in his land resulting from the Protestant Reformation. He is the patron saint of writers, journalists, teachers and the Catholic press.

HelpOurMarriage.org Retrouvaille is a practical program for married couples facing difficult challenges. It is not a marriage retreat, or counseling. You will not be asked to share the personal details of your story. Retrouvaille is different; it's a way to improve your communication, help you reconnect, and build a healthy, happier, stronger marriage. Catholic in origin, couples of all faiths, or no faith background, are welcome to attend. We are a Christian Peer Ministry offering tens of thousands of marriages hope in over 160 communities world-wide.

Ocean Financial Federal Credit Union Supports St. Raymond!

We have received our quarterly revenue sharing check from the Ocean Financial Federal Credit Union Parish revenue Sharing Program. Since its inception, our parish has received a total of $20,986! The amount we receive each quarter is determined by the number of our parishioner who are members of the credit union and their usage of the Ocean Financial Federal Credit Union VISA credit and/or debit card. Therefore, I want to especially thank each of you—your credit card usage benefits our parish and that's great! For those of you who are not yet members, I encourage you to consider joining. Visit their branch at 45 Atlantic Ave.in Oceanside, or for information call 516-620-8100

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

FOUNDED IN 1833, THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL IS A WORLDWIDE ORGANIZATION OF LAY CATHOLICS, FOLLOWING CHRIST'S CALL TO SERVE THE POOR, THE SUFFERING, AND THE DEPRIVED. OUR FOUNDING ACTIVITY, STILL PRACTICED TODAY, IS THE HOME VISIT. THROUGH THESE VISITS, VINCENTIAN MEMBERS ESTABLISH PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH OUR NEIGHBORS IN NEED. WHERE RESOURCES ALLOW WE CAN PROVIDE ASSISTANCE TO OUR NEIGHBORS IN NEED AND OR LEAD THEM TO OTHER RESOURCES WHERE THEY MAY BE ABLE TO OBTAIN THE HELP THEY REQUIRE.

ST. RAYMOND PARISH

HAS HAD AN ACTIVE CHAPTER (KNOWN AS A "CONFERENCE") OF THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FOR DECADES AND INVITES ALL WHO WISH TO HELP NEIGHBORS IN NEED.

St. Joseph, Defender of Life Prayer

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life—especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.

We ask Catholics to offer this prayer daily, from now until October 1, the beginning of Respect Life Month. Free online and print versions of the prayer can be found at www.respectlife.org/prayer-to-st-joseph. Thank you for responding to this invitation to pray and for your support in protecting innocent children and their vulnerable mothers from the evil of abortion.

St. Joseph, Defender of Life, pray for us!

Catholic Ministries Appeal
DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE

Renewed by the Eucharist Sent on Mission

The Eucharistic Revival has enkindled a missionary fire in the hearts of the American faithful. Going out on Mission - for the life of the World is the most important phase, where we go out and share the love of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist to transform the world. Faith is alive in our parishes and schools, soup kitchens and housing programs, on street corners and in churches. It is lived through people of all backgrounds, from every neighborhood. People everywhere come together to support one another. It is in this spirit that the Catholic Ministries Appeal exists: to bring support and build strong communities through faith and your generosity. Every year, the annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to realize the difference we can make when we act together in God's love. Please consider joining us again this year by making a gift to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

This week on FORMED...

"This is the first major feature length drama on the life of St. Anthony of Padua, the beloved miracle worker and one of the most popular saints in Christian history. Made in Italy with top-notch acting talent, and superb cinematography, this is an outstanding film on the amazing life of St. Anthony. It presents Anthony as a dynamic and appealing person who sacrificed wealth, popularity, and family for the Kingdom of God.

Communal Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles. Holy Spirit please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion. Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.
