Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time! Today's Gospel message is considered to be one of the most important teachings of Jesus. The message is very clear: Love of God and love of neighbor are the two most important commandments of Jesus. The first reading from Exodus shows how the Israelites were to treat those from foreign lands with utmost respect and compassion. No one should ever use the needs of another as a way to exert power over them. "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt." Then in the second reading from 1 Thessalonians, Paul is recognizing how the people have learned from his example and spread the gospel message of Jesus to other people. He is pleased at the fruits of their evangelization efforts. "For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything." And finally in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus presents the commandments of loving God above all with one's heart, soul and mind. And then to also love one's neighbor as you love yourself. "The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

In answer to a question about which is the greatest commandment, Jesus begins by saying that we must love God in a complete way. No Jewish disagreement there. But the second commandment Jesus gave was a little trickier, more puzzling. By saying these two commandments summed up the whole law, Jesus was linking them in a profound way. They really could not be separated. Love of God without love of neighbor is not love of God at all. Loving one's neighbor is evidence of love of God. Essentially, these two commandments are two ways of saying the same thing. God is at work in us when we care for others. But what about the part where Jesus talks of loving yourself? It is not meant in a selfish way or in an inflated view of self. And it is not the same as "liking" certain things about ourselves. Loving yourself has to mean something else, with nothing to do with individual qualities or achievements. Maybe it has to do with recognizing the way in which we were created.

Maybe it starts in the mind and heart of God. A God who made us out of love, made us in love and to love. He created us and said we were good, made in his image and likeness. This is who we are, beloved by God and made in such a way that we are able to spread that same love into the world. I guess you could say that "loving ourselves" is really knowing from where and whom we came. And that nothing can take that away from us no matter how often we stumble, fail and even sin. Love of God. Love of neighbor. Love of ourselves. It's all the same and it's all that matters. In the end it's being the person you were created to be, the person God wants you to be, the wonderful person you can be. So be a good lover. That's what Jesus told his disciples and is telling us today.

There will be a special Holy Hour this Tuesday evening, October 27th from 7-8pm in the church. This hour will be focused on the 800th Anniversary of the Death of St. Francis. Pope Leo XIV has proclaimed a special Jubilee Year for the Church from January 10, 2026, till January 10, 2027. Come join us for this time of prayerful reflection on the life of St. Francis and his influence on the Church. There will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Adoration, Reflection, Music and Benediction. Come and bring a friend.

Please remember to take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. There are many items of information and invitation, with something for everyone. Of additional note is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry, info from Religious Education (Faith Formation), the Come and See Centerfold page, the Communal Prayer Before Mass (found on the inside back page of the bulletin), an invitation to join FORMED (your Catholic Faith on demand) and much more. To keep informed, keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week for quick and easy reference.

Have a great last week of October. Smile, share, be a good lover and remember: In the words of St. Francis: "Start by doing what's necessary; then do what's possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible." God bless always.

-Father Chuck

WEEKLY MASS READINGS

OCTOBER 25, 2026 - 30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING EXODUS 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PSALM 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.
I love you, O LORD, my strength, O LORD,
my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.
My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold!
Praised be the LORD, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.
The LORD lives and blessed be my rock!
Extolled be God my savior. You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

SECOND READING 1 THESSALONIANS 1:5C-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

ALLELUIA JOHN 14:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word,
says the Lord, and my Father will love
him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL MATTHEW 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

30TH WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME GUIDE FOR PERSONAL PRAYER

Come & See

Until you do, you will

SUMMARY OF THE READINGS FOR THE WEEK

In the Gospel for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Matthew 22:34–40), Jesus teaches that the greatest commandments are to love God with our whole heart, soul, and mind, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. His words, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” remind us that genuine love for God must become visible in the compassion, forgiveness, and care we show others.

Wednesday this week is the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles. Saint Simon, called the Zealot, and Saint Jude, traditionally invoked as the patron of difficult and seemingly hopeless causes.

This week, the First Readings on Monday from Ephesians 4:32–5:8 and on Tuesday from 5:21–33 call us to imitate God's forgiving love and reflect Christ's self-giving devotion in our relationships. For Wednesday's Feast of Saints Simon and Jude from Ephesians 2:19–22 reminds us that we belong to God's household, built upon the foundation of the Apostles, with Christ Jesus Himself as the capstone. Their witness calls us to remain firmly united to Christ and one another.

On Thursday, the First Reading from Ephesians 6:10–20, encourages us to remain strong in the Lord. The readings on Friday, from Philippians 1:1–11, and on Saturday from 1:18b–26 reveal Saint Paul's joyful confidence that Christ continues His work through lives dedicated to Him.

Throughout this week's Gospels, Jesus reveals that love is expressed through mercy, patient growth, faithful courage, prayer, and humble service.

In Monday's Gospel (Luke 13:10–17), Jesus heals a woman crippled for eighteen years, declaring, “Woman, you are set free of your infirmity.” His compassion reminds us that God's love reaches toward those burdened by suffering and calls us to respond with the same tenderness.

On Tuesday (Luke 13:18–21), Jesus compares God's Kingdom to a mustard seed that grows into a large bush and to yeast that transforms dough, asking, “What is the Kingdom of God like?” Even small acts of kindness, prayer, and faithfulness can bear extraordinary fruit through God's grace.

In Wednesday's Gospel for the the Feast of Saints Simon and Jude (Luke 6:12–16), after spending the night in prayer, Jesus chooses the Twelve Apostles, including Saints Simon and Jude, whom He calls to share His mission. Jesus reminds us that every vocation begins in communion with the Father and grows through faithful obedience.

On Thursday (Luke 13:31–35), despite threats against His life, Jesus remains steadfast in His mission and expresses His longing to gather Jerusalem's children “as a hen gathers her brood under her wings.” His tender sorrow reveals a love that continues to reach toward us even when we resist His invitation.

In Friday's Gospel (Luke 14:1–6), Jesus heals a man suffering from dropsy and challenges those who would allow religious rules to overshadow compassion, asking, “Is it lawful to cure on the sabbath or not?” True faith never turns away from another person's suffering when love calls us to respond.

On Saturday (Luke 14:1, 7–11), observing guests seeking places of honor, Jesus teaches that “everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” His words invite us to seek opportunities to serve rather than recognition for ourselves.

In the Gospel for next Sunday which is the Solemnity of All Saints (Matthew 5:1–12a), Jesus proclaims, “Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God,” inviting us to rejoice in the promise of holiness and eternal life shared by all who follow Him

"And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices, God is pleased." Hebrews 13:16

During the month of September, the Parish Social Ministry assisted 111 households with food, personal and household items and advised them of other services available to them through the Department of Social Services, Catholic Charities and St. Vincent de Paul. We also welcomed one new client and provided them with food and advised them of other services that they may be eligible for.

Food assistance is available for those in need who live within our Parish boundaries. Also, if you are a senior citizen, living with the Parish boundaries, and depend on your Social Security benefit as your sole source of income, please contact us and we can help you with food.

Pantry items needed this week: Mustard, Mayonnaise, Ketchup, Small Cooking Oil, Cold Cereal, Hot Cereal, Canned Meat such as Dinty Moore Stew, Hormel Chili and Chicken Breast, Canned Fruit, Canned Pinto, Black, Kidney Beans and Chick Peas.

Donations of food can be brought to the Ryan House during its open hours or non-perishable food can be left in the bin on the Ryan House porch or in the Altar Server's Sacristy.

Thank you all for your generosity and continued support. You are always in our prayers!

"Type what you're looking for into a search engine. Click the link. Enter your address and payment information. Then place your order and wait for your package to be delivered. Typical shopping experience for Americans... But according to a disturbing study from Charlotte Lozier Institute, this is how many women across America are obtaining dangerous abortion drugs from overseas sellers. These drugs get shipped straight to their homes ignoring the safety rules established by the Food and Drug Administration, with the women never having a single in-person doctor visit...Of the foreign sellers examined 18 required no identification, while 17 shipped abortion drugs that have not been approved by the FDA. Some websites even offer to send women abortion pills before they are pregnant....Many U.S. based sellers seem all too willing to ignore state laws and disregard federal safeguards... Ever since the former Administration eliminated the requirement that the drug be dispensed in person, the mail-order abortion pill industry has exploded. Disturbingly, there are mounting reports of men entering false information online to get the abortion drugs and then trick coerce pregnant wives and girlfriends to take them...Easy access to dangerous abortion drugs is causing unprecedented harm to babies (the number of babies killed through abortion has increased since the Dobbs decision) and to moms." (Susan B. Anthony Pro-Life America, Fall Newsletter, 2026)

Saints Simon and Jude

Saints Simon and Jude were two of Jesus' original twelve apostles, traditionally believed to have traveled and preached the Gospel together. They are honored together on their shared feast day, October 28. Patron saints: Simon is the patron saint of leather tanners, woodcutters, and curriers. Jude is the patron saint of hopeless causes and hospital workers.

Communal Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day, so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion. Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.
