Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time! The theme of today's readings affirms that because we belong to God alone, our faith, hope and love should be given entirely to him. In the first reading from the Prophet Isaiah, the Israelites are told that God proclaims himself to be the one and only, with no God beside him. "I am the Lord and there is no other, there is no God besides me." Then in the second reading from the First Letter to the Thessalonians, Paul tells the people that he is aware of their faith, hope and love in Jesus Christ alone. He concludes this part of his letter by saying: "For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction." And finally, Matthew's gospel has the famous exchange of Jesus with the Pharisees on the subject of paying taxes to Caesar. Jesus knows that they are just trying to trip him up so they can question his integrity. When they show him a coin, Jesus gives his classic answer: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Jesus uses these words as an opportunity to get those questioning him and by extension you and me, to do the same. By saying what he did, Jesus seems to be implying that we "owe" God something and that "something" is something that "belongs" to him. So, what is that something? Get ready! It is you and me. We are the coins on which a face is stamped, and the face is not any of ours. It is the face of our loving God, the image of God with which we were imprinted from the moment of our creation. It is as if God stamped us from our very beginning in such a way that we would never forget to whom we belong. We are God's. We belong to him. Creating us is God's way of saying, "You are mine." And that's what he wants us to repay him with, give back to him, return to him. Ourselves! Completely! Unconditionally! Continually! Humbly!

So how do we do this? I would say there is only one way. It is by giving ourselves to others, giving God's love to others, our living God. We repay him, in a sense, through countless acts of goodness and kindness and mercy and love.

If we neglect someone in some way, we deny them the very experience of God that maybe only we can provide. Not feeding someone hungry or not forgiving someone when needed denies that person experiencing God's love in those ways. The list could go on and on. Put simply, without loving actions on our part, some things God desires will not come to fruition. We should always be willing to repay God in the only way possible by "repaying" it forward. Seems that is all God really wants from us.

I recently heard from Father Mike Rieder, the pastor of St. Joseph Church in Ronkonkoma. Father Mike is a native son of St. Raymond's and known to many of you. He was with me for one year when I became pastor of Infant Jesus Church in Port Jefferson back in 1998. Father Mike has always been a dedicated and faith-filled priest, especially caring for those in need. It is only natural that he would write a book reflecting on the many experiences during his priestly journey. The book is entitled "You Give Them Something to Eat" (Loaves and Fishes for the Christian Soul). The book is available at Barnes and Noble, Bookshop.org, Amazon and through St. Joseph Parish in Ronkonkoma-with all proceeds going to St. Joseph Parish. There will be more information about Father Mike's book in future bulletins. I definitely look forward to getting my copy and reading Father Mike's reflections on the lived reality he experienced through the lens of the loaves and fishes' miracle.

Please remember to take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. It contains many items of interest and invitation with something for everyone. Of special note is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry, info from Religious Education (Faith Formation), the Come and See centerfold page, the Communal Prayer Before Mass (found on the inside back cover of the bulletin), an invitation to join FORMED (your Catholic Faith on demand) and much more. To keep informed, keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week for quick and easy reference.

Have a great week. Smile, share, give back to God by giving forward to others. Remember: You need not ever fear what love might demand of you. God bless always. -Father Chuck

WEEKLY MASS READINGS
OCTOBER 18, 2026 - 29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING
ISAIAH 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
PSALM 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

For great is the LORD and highly to be praised; awesome is he, beyond all gods. For all the gods of the nations are things of nought, but the LORD made the heavens.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name! Bring gifts, and enter his courts.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Worship the LORD, in holy attire; tremble before him, all the earth; say among the nations: The LORD is king, he governs the peoples with equity.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

SECOND READING
1 THESSALONIANS 1:1-5B

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

ALLELUIA
PHILIPPIANS 2:15D, 16A

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Shine like lights in the world
as you hold on to the word of life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL
MATTHEW 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

SUMMARY OF THE READINGS FOR THE WEEK

In the Gospel for the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Matthew 22:15–21), Jesus answers those seeking to trap Him with a question about paying taxes to Caesar, teaching us to fulfill our earthly responsibilities without forgetting to whom our hearts truly belong. His words, “Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God,” invite us to recognize that everything we are and everything we possess ultimately comes from our loving Father.

Monday is the Memorial of Saints John de Brébeuf and Isaac Jogues, Priests, and Companions, Martyrs, Jesuit missionaries and their companions who courageously proclaimed Christ among the Indigenous peoples of North America and remained faithful through persecution and death.

Tuesday is the Optional Memorial of Saint Paul of the Cross, a priest who founded the Passionist Congregation and devoted his life to helping others discover God's love through meditation on Christ's suffering and death. Thursday is the Optional Memorial of Saint Pope John Paul II, whose courageous witness, defense of human dignity, and call to trust the mercy of Christ encouraged countless people to open their hearts to the Lord.

Friday is the Optional Memorial of Saint John of Capistrano, a Franciscan priest and preacher who traveled throughout Europe encouraging repentance, renewal, and courageous fidelity to the Catholic faith. Saturday is the Optional Memorial of Saint Anthony Mary Claret, bishop and missionary, who founded the Claretians and dedicated his life to renewing the spiritual life of the Church.

The First Readings for Monday through Saturday, are taken from Saint Paul's Letter to the Ephesians (2:1–4:16). Saint Paul leads us from the saving grace of Christ toward reconciliation, unity, and spiritual maturity. We discover that God's mercy draws us together into one household of faith, where every person has a part in building up the Body of Christ.

Throughout the weekday Gospels, Jesus invites us to examine what we treasure, remain spiritually awake, and allow His truth to transform our daily lives.

Monday (Luke 12:13–21): Through the parable of the rich fool, Jesus warns against placing our security in possessions: “Take care to guard against all greed.” True wealth is found in a heart generous toward God and others. Tuesday (Luke 12:35–38): Jesus compares faithful disciples to servants awaiting their master's return: “Gird your loins and light your lamps.” He calls us to live each day prepared to welcome Him with joyful hearts.

Wednesday (Luke 12:39–48): Jesus teaches that those entrusted with responsibilities must exercise them faithfully: “Much will be required of the person entrusted with much.” Our gifts and opportunities become blessings when used in loving service. Thursday (Luke 12:49–53): Jesus speaks of the transforming fire of His mission: “I have come to set the earth on fire.” Following Him sometimes requires difficult choices and courage when faith challenges the expectations of others.

Friday (Luke 12:54–59): Jesus challenges the crowds to recognize God's presence and respond without delay: “Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?” He invites us to seek reconciliation and choose what is good while opportunities remain.

Saturday (Luke 13:1–9): Jesus calls His listeners to repentance and tells the parable of the barren fig tree: “If you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!” God's patient mercy gives us time to change and bear the fruits of a faithful life.

For the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Matthew 22:34–40), Jesus calls us to place love at the center of everything we do: “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”

MONTH 4 - DEVELOPING BABY

"I HAD A DREAM TODAY!"

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Well, your little baby now weighs six ounces. He has fingernails and eyelashes. He has his own unique fingerprints, which will remain the same until he dies. His taste buds are working. His sense of hearing is developing and present at 14 weeks. There are no major developments anymore. At this month rapid eye movements (REMs) can be detected – a sign of dreaming. Your spiritually adopted baby is already wellformed, internally and externally. All he needs now is time to gain weight and grow strong. What a miracle he is!

LIFE CENTER BABY BOTTLE FUNDRAISER

Thanks to all who are participating in this important fundraiser for the Life Center. All it takes is filling your baby bottle with your spare coin (or any donation you would like to give). May the drop of your donation remind you of the difference you are making in the lives of the mothers and their unborn babies. You are helping save unborn babies from abortion, one baby at a time. The filled baby bottles will be collected after each Mass the week-end of

Communal Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass,
in which we enter the Last Supper,
Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son,
Jesus Christ. He is as present to us today in his Word and in the Eucharist,
as he was with his apostles.

Holy Spirit please quiet our minds
from the busyness and distractions of our day,
so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.

Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord,
Amen.
