12th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Happy Father's Day

Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time! And Happy Father's Day to all our dads! Thank you for loving our moms and for taking care of us in all ways as we grow from children into adulthood. Your example is what inspires us to be the best we can. Today's readings promote trust in God's love especially in the midst of fear. In the first reading from the Book of Job, we see Job, wondering if God cares at all about him in the midst of his sufferings. God responds by using the sea as being calmed by God's care to assure Job that he is not forgotten. God helps him become an even more perfect example of selfless devotion to God. Thus, today's responsorial psalm gives Job's final response: "Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting." Then in 2 Corinthians, Paul tells the people that they should concentrate on being a new creation in Jesus. "So, whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old order has passed away; behold, new things have come." And finally, Mark's gospel begins a series of four miracle stories. Today's focus is on Jesus calming a storm at sea. While the disciples witness many of Jesus' miracles whether it be today's calming of the storm or casting out demons or curing illness; they have a hard time linking the power of God over the forces of chaos with Jesus, who shows the same power. At least not yet! "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith? They were filled with great awe and said to one another: 'Who is this whom even the wind and sea obey?'"

All people struggle with fear. It may not always be obvious, nonetheless it has power over our actions and perception of reality. The Christian story is the dynamic back and forth struggle between human fear and divine embrace. Adam and Eve hid from God because they were afraid. All of us struggle with fear for it is the heart's cry for God's love. It is fundamental in meeting God. In the midst of our fear, God pulls us closer. We have all experienced times when all is going wrong, and the pain is too much. We cry out and no response readily comes. That's when like Job, God pulls us closer to his heart and reminds us that he loves us and is with us no matter what. And in the midst of our fear God calls us into new life. Many times, like Paul our fears are bound up in past experiences that continue to bring us guilt and shame. Jesus healed Paul's past and he became a new creation. It can be the same for us. And just like in the gospel our lives can feel like a storm for varied reasons: financial uncertainty, or risk, relationship turbulence, health danger, etc.

Jesus wants to assure us he loves us and doesn't want us to suffer and calming our storms is definitely his wish for us too.

So, when experiencing fear, despair or anxiety ask God to pull you closer, to embrace you in such a way that you know you have all you need. If your fear is shame or guilt, ask Jesus to break the chains of past sins and habits so you can experience newness of life and redemption. And if like the disciples you are terrified by a particular storm in your life, Jesus is waiting for you to ask him to speak the powerful command into your life: "Be still."

This past week, St. Raymond School came to a close after 94 years of Catholic education for St. Raymond Parish and the surrounding communities. After almost a century, the ministry of St. Raymond School has come to an end for our children and the families of our parish. We certainly feel sad that something that was good for so many years to so many people will no longer continue. Uncertainty makes us anxious, so how do we deal with this as a people of faith? This question is fundamental for our school community and all people of faith. It's what makes us different from other schools and organizations. I feel we all need to be clear about who Jesus is for us now and at any moment in our lives. In the midst of sadness and even anger, I believe our faith invites us to be thankful as we come to the end of our school. The end of our school is not the end of what has been learned here, especially about Jesus, nor bring to a close the chance to offer Jesus' love to others. So, even with sorrow in our hearts, let us be thankful and allow Jesus to fill our hearts more with his loving presence.

Please take home this copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. It contains many items of interest and invitation. Of special note is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry, info from Religious Education, the Principal's Corner of St. Raymond School, info about the Father's Day Novena of Masses that starts this Sunday, the opening of CYO Basketball Registration, an invitation to join FORMED (your Catholic faith on demand) and much more. Keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week for quick and easy reference.

Have a great week. Smile, share and Happy Father's Day once again to all our dads. Remember: Dad is a son's first hero and a daughter's first love. God bless always.

- Father Chuck

WEEKLY MASS PRAYERS

SUNDAY, JUNE 20, 2021-12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,

we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us;

You take away the sin of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One;
you alone are the Lord.

You alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father.

Amen

The Our Father

Our Father,

Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.

Thy Will be done,
on earth as it is in Heaven.

Give us this day
our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our Salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in Glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of Sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

READINGS FOR TODAY'S MASS

SUNDAY, JUNE 20, 2021- 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING

Jb 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting. They who sailed the sea in ships, trading on the deep waters, These saw the works of the LORD and his wonders in the abyss.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting. His command raised up a storm wind which tossed its waves on high. They mounted up to heaven; they sank to the depths; their hearts melted away in their plight.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting. They cried to the LORD in their distress; from their straits he rescued them, He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze, and the billows of the sea were stilled.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting. They rejoiced that they were calmed, and he brought them to their desired haven. Let them give thanks to the LORD for his kindness and his wondrous deeds to the children of men.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

2 Cor 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters:

The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

ALLELUIA

Lk 7:16

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

A great prophet has risen in our midst
God has visited his people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

Mk 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Founded in 1833, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a worldwide organization of lay Catholics, following Christ's call to serve the poor, the suffering, and the deprived. Our founding activity, still practiced today, is the Home Visit. Through these visits, Vincentian members establish personal relationships with our neighbors in need, not only providing material assistance such as rent, utilities, food, or clothing, but also offering friendship, understanding, and prayer.

St. Raymond Parish has had an active chapter (known as a "conference") of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul for decades and invites all who wish to help neighbors in need. Please email svdpstray@gmail.com for information on ways that you can participate.

St. Raymond Human Life Committee

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PRAYER PROGRAM SIGN-UP WEEK-END

This week-end we will begin our "Spiritual Adoption Prayer Program". Since the infamous 1973 Supreme Court Decisions of Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton, over 62 MILLION babies in the womb have been legally and intentionally killed through the brutal surgical abortion procedures (this number does not include those babies killed through chemical abortions). Because the assaults on the pre-born babies continue and have been expanded to include the time right up till birth and sometimes, even after birth, we are asking all of our parishioners to consider participating in this simple but powerful prayer program. Simply sign one of the pledge cards (located in each of the Church's vestibules), separate the pledge card from the "Prayer for Life", (which you will keep) and place the signed pledge card into the plastic box provided. By signing the card, you are pledging to pray the "Prayer for Life" daily, for the next nine months for a baby who is in danger of being aborted. The signed pledge cards will be placed on St. Joseph's altar and remain there for the entire nine months. Each month, in the bulletin, there will be information about the baby's development and on the bulletin boards in the Church's vestibules there will be pictures of the pre-born baby at that particular stage of growth. Our hope is that all will take the time to look at the pictures and that they will bring a heightened awareness to all of us of the humanity, beauty and vulnerability of these little ones and the need for all to be voices for them. Please consider making this daily commitment and share the gift of hope, love and life to these precious little ones.

"He will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of the children To their fathers". (Malachi 4:6)
We wish all fathers a very Happy and Blessed Father's Day!

Spiritual Adoption

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
I love you very much.

I beg you to spare the life of the unborn child that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

prayer by Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Father's Day Novena

As we celebrate Father's Day on Sunday, June 20th, there will once again be the parish's Novena of Masses prayed for nine consecutive days starting on June 20th. It is very fitting to remember our Fathers in prayer during this novena. Envelopes for this novena were mailed to those who receive the weekly envelope mailing. They are also available near the doors of the church. If you wish to participate in this novena simply fill out one of these envelopes, include your donation and place it in one of the boxes marked "Father's Day" which are located on the pew shelves by the doors of the church. Or you can return it by mail or just drop it off in the rectory mail slot. Please do so by Sunday, June 20th.

STEWARDSHIP

Time ♦ Talent ♦ Treasure

This week, practice the pillar of service by doing something special for someone else. It could be helping a relative with a project, doing extra chores for your spouse or sibling, or making a gift to your parish or the DRVC's Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Be Still, and know that I am GOD

A Prayer as I put on my mask:

Creator,
As I prepare to go into the world,
Help me to see the sacrament
In the wearing of this cloth-
Let it be "an outward sign
Of an inward grace"-
A tangible and visible way of living
Love for my neighbors,
Christ,
Since my lips will be covered,
Uncover my heart,
That people would see my smile
In the crinkles around my eyes.
Since my voice may be muffled,
Help me to speak clearly,
Not only with my words,
But with my actions.
Holy Spirit,
As the elastic touches my ears,
Remind me to listen carefully-
And full of care-
To all those I meet.
May this simple piece of cloth be Shield and banner,
And each breath that it holds,
Be filled with your love.
In your name and in
The name of love
I pray.
May it be so, May it be so.

THE FUN

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a Dad like James. James saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. James had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, James had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. James and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, James is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared James.

Please consider donating to the Appeal and making a difference in the lives of others.

ST. JOSEPH IS PATRON SAINT OF FATHER'S DAY

"If a person cannot find anyone to teach him how to pray, let him take this glorious saint for his guide, and he will not lose his way." — St. Teresa of Avila referring to St. Joseph. St. Joseph, husband of Mary and earthly father of Jesus, is the model of fatherhood. His faith and obedience to God inspired his devotion for his family. As we celebrate Father's Day on Sunday, June 20, it might be helpful to study his example. In "Five Lessons from St. Joseph," author Randy Hain points out attributes that serve as a helpful guide:

St. Joseph was obedient.

St. Joseph was selfless.

St. Joseph led by example.

St. Joseph was a worker.

St. Joseph was a leader.

"Let's look to the inspiring example of St. Joseph, patron saint of fathers, workers and the Universal Church for his obedience, humility, selflessness, courage and the love he showed to Mary and Jesus. If we can emulate St. Joseph even a little each day, we will be that much closer to becoming the men we are called to be," Hain wrote.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect all the fathers who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.

 The Rose for Life Program

The Rose for Life program began here at St. Raymond on Mother's Day, May 12, 1985. A rose is placed on the Offertory Table at the 5:00pm Mass and is presented to the priest at the Offertory. The rose symbolizes the life of a preborn baby who dies from abortion. It remains at the tabernacle for the coming week.

The main purpose of the rose is to remind each one of us to pray for the babies who are in danger of abortion. Prayer is one of the most important ways to stop abortion. The rose also serves a special remembrance of the life of our loved ones, in whose name the rose is dedicated each week.

For dedications, please call Mary Healy at 887-4062.

ST. ANTHONY'S HIGH SCHOOL

This summer, Camp Quo Vadis returns as a one day, in-person rally.

All youth, current 8th-12th graders (2020-2021 school year) are invited to join us for a day of powerful talks, inspiring music, games and recreation, and incredible experiences of prayer and Sacrament.

Religious Education- Faith Formation

Evelyn Contaldi, Director

Registration forms for the upcoming school year have been e-mailed to parents. The forms can also be found on the parish website. At the present time, in-person classes are scheduled to be held in the St. Raymond School building starting in September for grades 2-8. First grade will be taught at home by the parents. First grade parents and their child will meet five times throughout the school year for instruction and then attend Mass together right after each meeting. Please drop off or mail in your completed forms along with payment as soon as possible.

CATECHISTS NEEDED

The Religious Education program is in need of Catechists. Please consider joining this important ministry of educating our young people in our faith. For parents who decide to teach for us and have children in the program, there is no Registration fee. Please do not be apprehensive if you think you are not able to teach a Religion class. The teacher manuals are user friendly and there will be a new teacher workshop held at the beginning of the year. There is full-time support throughout the year from the Religious Education staff. Another consideration is to team-teach a class, meaning that there are two teachers sharing the responsibility of teaching a class. Here is where we need teachers:

2nd grade Tuesdays 3:30pm-4:30pm 1 teacher
3rd grade Wed / Thurs 3:30pm-4:30pm 1 teacher
4th grade Wednesday 3:30pm-4:30pm 1 teacher
5th grade Thursday 3:30pm-4:30pm 1 teacher
6th grade Wednesday 3:30pm-4:30pm 1 teacher

If you are able to join our ministry, please call the Religious Education office at 516-593-9075 – our office hours are Monday-Thursday 10am-4:30pm.

ATTENTION 8TH GRADE PARENTS

Dates for 2021 Confirmation are not yet determined due to the pandemic. Parents will be advised as soon as a plan is put into place. The required Confirmation retreat is scheduled for Sunday, October 3rd, 2021 – please mark this date on your calendar. Specific details regarding the retreat will be sent home.

ALL COMPLETED WORKBOOKS FOR STUDENTS IN THE CATCH-UP PROGRAM OF FOR STUDENTS THAT WERE HOME TAUGHT OR FOR 1ST GRADE STUDENTS ARE DUE NO LATER THAN FRIDAY 06/25/2021. BOOKS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AFTER THAT DATE.

“The righteous who walks in his integrity-blessed are his children after him!” Proverbs 20:7 ESV

Blessed is the father who shares his heart, lives his faith, gives his time, and loves his family. And blessed is his family because of him!

Happy Father's Day!

Principal's Corner

Sister Ruthanne

On this day I would like to quote from the Collect prayer since it seems appropriate to me. "Grant, O Lord, that we may always revere and love your holy name, for you never deprive of your guidance those you set firm on the foundation of your love." It seems like a foggy kind of time in our lives right now. Perhaps we even feel a little lost and forsaken, but we need to always keep in front of us that God will never stop caring for us and leading us in the right path. We have been set firm in His love and that will not change - even if our lives may look a little different, or we are with different folks in different surroundings. We are one family and always will be!

So, we have come to the end of an era with the closing of St. Raymond School. We have seen the writing on the wall for some time, but never really wanted to believe it. It happened and it is all part of God's marvelous plan (even if we tried to convince Him to change for what we wanted!) We need to remember that God will continue to hold our children gently in the palm of His hand and love them wherever they may be. Trusting in God is an important lesson that we teach the children from the beginning.

Let me take this opportunity to thank all our families and friends for their undying support of St. Raymond School over these last 94 years. We are so grateful for everything that you have done - buying candy or wrapping paper or Irish soda bread, or cookies, or gift cards; coming to auctions, bingo, Night at the Races, carnivals, yard sales, plays, movie night, concerts; marching (or watching) the parades for St. Patrick's Day, Memorial Day, Columbus Day, St. Brendan's Day. We have done it all and so have you. You have helped to make wonderful memories for us all and we are most grateful. Please know that you will always have a special place in our prayers and hearts. Thank you for being the warm and friendly people you are.

God bless you always.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,

Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.
