Father Chuck's Corner

Greetings and God's blessings be yours on the Thirty-second Week in Ordinary Time! Today's focus is that in order to draw close to God, we must seek him. In the first reading from the Book of Wisdom, it seems that like a woman being sought by those who love her, so is Wisdom. Wisdom is seen as a woman who hastens to make herself known and waits at the gate for all those who seek her. "She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire; whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed." Then in the second reading from 1 Thessalonians, Paul assures the people that those who have died in faith will be united with those who remain in this life when Jesus comes again. "Thus, we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words." And finally, in Matthew's gospel we have the parable about the five wise virgins. They are the ones who prepared their lamps for the bridegroom's return, while the five foolish virgins did not have enough oil for their lamps and so were locked out of the wedding. They were caught unprepared. Like the five wise virgins we need to be prepared and ready to replenish our lamps when they grow weak and flame out. We must ask God to always wake us from spiritual slumber with the grace necessary to rekindle the flame that burns with love of him. "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

We just heard this story from Matthew's gospel in which there are five who are completely ready, attentive, prepared and focused on meeting the bridegroom, while five others are short-sighted, and lazy in their lack of preparedness. When the bridegroom finally arrives the five with the extra oil are invited into the wedding feast while the other five are nowhere to be found. They had wandered off, too embarrassed to stay with lamps that had burned out. We don't really know what they were thinking.But what they weren't was-----present!They were not where they should have been. Their responsibility had been abdicated. Their chance to meet the bridegroom had come and gone. We understand that this story applies to Jesus' return, and the end of our earthly lives. But it also teaches us something about our day-to-day lives. Sin is a kind of wandering, a straying from holiness, missing out on God-moments because our attention and focus is someplace elseSomething else is more important, more urgent and more attractive. Our intentions may start off good but then begin to wane and get muddled. We were just not ready for challenges to our relationship with God.

Too many times, we let doing the good thing, the God-thing pass us by, never to be reclaimed or done-over. We fail to do the loving things, and we distance ourselves from others, continuing to make poor decisions. The good news is that God doesn't play hard to get. He draws near to all those who seek him with sincerity of heart and faith.We need to be present to God in order to become the person he wants us to be. If we keep seeking God and try to be present to him than this world will become more like the feast it will fully be at the end of time.

Please remember to take home a copy of the bulletin when you leave Mass today. It contains many items of interest and invitation with something for everyone. Of special notes is news and needs from Parish Social Ministry, info from Religious Education (Faith Formation), the Light of the World gathering on Thursday evening, November 12th, an order form for the special One Year Memorial Candles, the Ministry Spotlight Column, featuring the Sodality of Our Lady for the month of November, an ad for Father Mike Rieder's book entitled "You Give them something to Eat," the Come and See Centerfold page, the Communal Prayer Before Mass (found on the inside back page of the bulletin), an invitation to join FORMED (your Catholic Faith on demand) and much more. To keep informed, keep a copy of the bulletin at home each week for quick and easy reference.

Have a great week. Smile, share and pray for all our Military Veterans this week as we honor them on Veterans Day, this Wednesday, November 11th. And remember: We're all broken. That's how the light gets in. God bless always. Father Chuck

WEEKLY MASS READINGS

NOVEMBER 8, 2026 - 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING
WISDOM 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire; Whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed, for he shall find her sitting by his gate. For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence, and whoever for her sake keeps vigil shall quickly be free from care; because she makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her, and graciously appears to them in the ways, and meets them with all solicitude.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
PSALM 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek; for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory, For your kindness is a greater good than life; my lips shall glorify you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name. As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied, and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

I will remember you upon my couch, and through the night-watches I will meditate on you: You are my help, and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READING
1 JOHN 3:1-3

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Stay awake and be ready! For you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

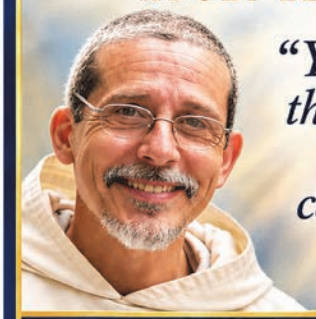

GOSPEL
MATTHEW 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise ones replied, 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.' While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

32ND WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME GUIDE FOR PERSONAL PRAYER

Come & See

Until you do, you will never know

SUMMARY OF THE READINGS FOR THE WEEK

In the Gospel for the Thirty-Second Week in Ordinary Time (Matthew 25:1–13), Jesus' parable of the ten virgins, remindes us that faith requires constant readiness for His coming. As the wise virgins prepare their lamps, Jesus urges us to remain spiritually awake, declaring, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Monday of this week is the Feast of the Dedication of the Archbasilica of Saint John Lateran, which is the official cathedral of the Pope as the Bishop of Rome, and not Saint Peter's Basilica. It is the only "archbasilica" in the world, and is dedicated to Christ the Savior, in honor of Saint John the Baptist and Saint John the Evangelist. The place name, Lateran, comes from the fact that it was built where the ancient Lateran Palace once stood. This feast remindes us that the Church is God's dwelling among His people.

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Leo the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church, whose courageous leadership defended the faith and strengthened Christian unity. Wednesday is the Memorial of Saint Martin of Tours, a bishop and former soldier whose compassion for the poor revealed Christ's love.

Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Josaphat, a bishop and martyr who gave his life seeking unity among Christians. Friday is the Memorial of Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini, a religious sister and missionary who devoted herself to serving immigrants, children, and the poor in America.

Together, these saints remind us that holiness grows through steadfast faith, humble service, and love for others. Their witness encourages us to prepare for Christ's coming by recognizing and serving Him in those around us.

For Monday's Feast of the Dedication of the Archbasilica of Saint John Lateran, the First Reading (Ezekiel 47:1–2, 8–9, 12) and Second Reading (Saint Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 3:9c–11, 16–17) reveal the Church as God's holy dwelling, where His Spirit brings life and renewal.

The First Readings on Tuesday through Saturday come from Saint Paul's Letter to Titus (2:1–8, 11–14; 3:1–7), his Letter to Philemon (7–20), and the Second and Third Letters of John (2 John 4–9; 3 John 5–8). These excerpts encourage us to strive for lives shaped by God's grace, forgiveness, Christian love, hospitality, and faithful service. Together, they remind us that awaiting Christ means allowing His love to transform our daily relationships.

Throughout this week's Gospels, Jesus invites us to prepare our hearts through reverence, humility, gratitude, vigilance, and persevering prayer.

In Monday's Gospel (John 2:13–22), Jesus cleanses the Temple and reveals Himself as the true dwelling place of God, declaring, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." On Tuesday (Luke 17:7–10), Jesus teaches that faithful service requires humility, reminding us, "We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do." On Wednesday (Luke 17:11–19), Jesus heals ten lepers, but only one returns in thanksgiving; to him Jesus says, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

On Thursday (Luke 17:20–25), Jesus teaches that God's Kingdom is already present among us, declaring, "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you." On Friday (Luke 17:26–37), Jesus warns against becoming absorbed in worldly concerns, reminding us, "Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it." On Saturday (Luke 18:1–8), through the persistent widow, Jesus teaches us to persevere in prayer, asking, "But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

In the Gospel for the Thirty-Third Week in Ordinary Time (Matthew 25:14–30), Jesus calls us to use faithfully the gifts entrusted to us, promising, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

Communal Prayer Before Mass

Father in heaven, we wish to prepare well for participation in this Mass, in which we enter the Last Supper, Passion, Death and Resurrection of your Son, Jesus Christ.
He is as present to us today in his Word
and in the Eucharist, as he was with his apostles.
Holy Spirit please quiet our minds from the busyness and distractions of our day,
so that we will have hearts and minds attentive to the words of Jesus and ready to receive his Body and Blood in Holy Communion.
Blessed Mother, take our hearts and give us yours, that like you, we may ponder Jesus' words and do whatever he tells us to do.
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord,
Amen.
